University essays from Sweden

Essays.se is a digital resource which enables you to search and download thousands of English-language university essays from Sweden.

What are university students in Sweden writing their final theses about? Here you will find out. To start searching, type something into the green search box, above!

More info about Essays.se

Essays.se gives non-Swedish speakers access to essays published at Swedish universities.

Essays.se is the English language version of the website Uppsatser.se. ("Uppsatser", incidentally, means "essays" in Swedish.)

At the main site Uppsatser.se there are more than 50.000 essays and final theses, but most of these are written Swedish. Therefore, at Essays.se you will only find the English-language essays.

At the moment you will find 15066 essays through this website, but more are added each week - as soon as they are finished by the students and submitted by the Swedish universities.
